POLIS

Polis will be the Mecca for theatregoers today. Both the modern in sensational acting, the latest in vaudeville and the old favorite drama of English country life is viewed at the big playhouse.In feature pictures Theda Bara, the screen vampire once more appears but in a somewhat varied role when she takes the impersonation of Isabel in the modernized screen version of the internationally famous stage success "East Lynne". An all-star cast support Miss Bara including Claire Whitney, Stanhope Wheat-croft, W. H. Tooker, Stuart Holmes and other actresses and actors of international reputation. The revival is pleasantly staged in five parts and is conceded by experts to be even stronger in its scenes and emotional parts than ever before.Heading the vaudeville performance, the Western Whirlwind, Bert Lamont appears with his cowboy minstrels, seven in number in one of the most novel and riotous musical melanges offered on the American stage. The essence of frontier life is preserved intact while the music is specially adapted to the times, including a full repertoire of comedy sayings and doings that convulse.Trovato, a special feature of the program is well known in Bridgeport as he is throughout the United States.
His violin offering is classic in its emotional and furious continuance. With an entirely new selection of offerings his appearance at this time will enchant, amuse and offer novelty of sensations."The Double Cross" a comedy of stage life that gives a glimpse of reality in the life of artificiality is presented in distinct form by Catherine Cameron & Company, old favorites with the vaudeville audiences of Bridgeport.Other acts of merit on the big bill for today and the remainder of the week are Stevens & Falk, two girls who utilize the full stage in their remarkable dancing act, and Mahoney Brothers & Daisy offering an exceptional and eccentric oddity introducing the full routine of stagemen including much that is unique in both songs and dances.Other comedy pictures are shown throughout the performances.

PLAZA.

Mae Marsh, the pretty young heroine of Triangle plays, has the leading role in the latest production of that remarkable "movie" organization and in support are Robert Harron, Wilfred Lucas, Olga Grey and many other great favorites. The title of the piece is "The Wild Girl of the Sierras," a rather unique one for a most deeply interesting story that isful of thrills and adventure "The Wild Girl of the Sierras" is melo-dramatic in every sense and has something inoculated in its plot that keeps one's interest at a boiling point until the climax is reached. Aside from its story value the picture has many pleasing assets and the photography is really wonderful. It is in five parts and will be shown the latter half of the week.The Ten Miniature Kiddies will headline the vaudeville program with a delightful offering of song, dance and comedy quips. Each boy and girl is possessed of a beautiful voice and the ensemble harmony is exquisite. The dance numbers are exceedingly graceful and attractive and the act should prove a big drawing card.
Yates and Wheeler, a clever pair who have "made good" throughout the Middle Western states, have landed in the East with the novel offering to duplicate if not surpass their former triumphs.Edmunds and Leedom have a pleasing little skit composed of singing and talking with comedy inter-persed at the right moments and their reception will surely be enthusiastic.Navin and Navin in a high class roller skating novelty have been scheduled to appear."Bath Tub Perils," a two-part Keystone comedy direct from the great Western studios, will be included in the bill.

EMPIRE.

There is an old saying which reads "laugh and drive away the blues." This is also sound advice. Witness the "Purple Lady," the five part Metro comedy featuring that inimitable musical comedy star Ralph Herz and you will surely put aside all cares and drive the little blue "gloom" demon far, far away. In this comedy there is a laugh a foot and then some.Herz is at his best and that is going some. So our advice is, if you have not seen this comedy masterpiece, put on your straw lid and take your friends and witness this gloom chaser and you'll not regret it.In conjunction with the featured attraction an all selected program of single and multiple part Universal subjects of both a comedy and dramatic nature will also be shown."The World's Great Snare," a thrilling adaptation of E. Phillips Oppenheim's celebrated novel has been "done" by the Famous Players' company with Pauline Frederick in the leading role and will be the featured attraction at the Empire tomorrow and Saturday.The Jap steamer Daiyetsu Maru and the Italian steamer Clara have been sunk.FUNERAL BOUQUETS AND DESIGNS.

"THE BIRTH OF A NATION"

Griffith's big spectacle, "The Birth of a Nation," will come to the Lyric Monday, July 3. There will be a big orchestra and a small army of effect producers "behind the scenes." Thus it will be seen that this gigantic production is to be presented here justMAE MARSH, Birth of a Nation.as it was viewed by the people of Boston, Chicago, New York and other cities at popular prices.The picture is a dramatization of Dixon's "The Clansman." Its chief incidents are historic. The incident of the negro is responsible for the formation of the Klu Klux Klan, which chases the carpet-baggers out of the South and rehabilitates the Southland.Few people know into what a lamentable situation the South fell nearly 10 years after Appomattox. The whites were disfranchised because of their part in the war and Southern states were governed by a combination of newly franchised negroes and carpet-baggers from the North whose main object was loot. How the whites of the South regained control of the country is one of the most dramatic passages in our history.

LAST DAY FOR THOSE

WHO'D BE CITIZENS.

Seventeen applications were received for second papers yesterday by Naturalization Clerk M. J. Flanagan.
The last day papers may be filed if the applicants wish to be made citizens in time to vote in the coming presidential election. The names must be posted 90 days in the superior court and applicants cannot vote unless they were given citizenship papers at least one month before election. Yesterday there were nine applications for first papers.
